Mrs. Domitila Paiko died at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. The funeral took place today at 2 o'clock at the Honolulu Undertaking Parlors.

Mrs. Paiko was over eighty years old. Miss Josephine Palecki, who came down to settle the affairs of her sister, Miss Thedosa Palecki, the nurse who died so suddenly last month, left today on the Alameda for her home in Oakland.

Among the passengers on the Alameda this morning was Mrs. F. W. McDaniel, who will spend a week in San Francisco and then go on to Chicago and New York for a stay of three or four months.

Remember a delicious dinner at the popular price of one dollar is served every evening on the great semi-circular hall of the Seaside Hotel. Best value for the money and coldest place in town to dine.

Upon motion of Referee in Bankruptcy W. T. Rawling yesterday Mary Jane Montano, Andress A. Montano, Hiram Kolonoku, W. W. Boyd, E. N. Voeller, John and George Haggart, were discharged by Judge Dole.

Judge Perry is quoted as saying: "In view of the nature of the campaign Sheriff Brown is now conducting, as evidenced by his speeches of Monday evening at Iwilei and Kakaako, I have concluded that I can no longer support him."

George Henshall, the Star's veteran court reporter, will shortly leave for Hilo to take the editorship of the Herald.

A. M. Burns is reported to leave the Herald to take the Hilo Tribune. The local newspapermen will be sorry to miss Henshall.

An interesting document has been filed in the Territorial archives. It is an agreement between G. P. Judd, acting for Governor Kekuanooa and Joseph W. Hayward. The latter agreed to ring the bell on the Seaman's Chapel in Honolulu at 9:30 and at 10 o'clock each evening as a signal for the sailors to get on board their ships.

In the hearing of the Hills case yesterday in which Alfred Hills in contention with his two brothers, John and William, over the property of his mother, the latter was placed on the stand and gave strong testimony for the defendants. She stated that she had intentionally given away all her property to the two boys as they were helping her and looking after her.

Among the passengers on the Hongkong Maru who stopped at the Moana for a few hours' rest was Victor Marsh of Pasadena, who is en route to the coast from his annual trip to the Orient. Mr. Marsh owns one of the large Japanese art stores in the State of California and each year spends many thousands in purchasing rare and beautiful things for the eastern tourist trade. He was one of the passengers on the Manchuria and spent ten days here awaiting passage to the Orient.

At San Francisco Mr. Marsh will charter a car to carry his Oriental stock to the southland. He reports a very rough and decidedly unpleasant voyage with heavy head winds and rough seas most of the way.

"SAVE-THE-HORSE" SPAVIN CURE

Dear Sirs:—About two years ago a very fine, well bred mare I own got what seemed to be a bad sprain of the off fore fetlock, which made her very lame; I blistered her and let her run out for about four months, when I took her up she was better but still lame and got worse when worked. I then tried another kind of blister with about the same results.

Last Spring I bought a bottle of your Save-the-Horse from your agent in this city. After treating the mare with this for about two weeks I gave her some slow driving; she improved very much, and by the time I had used up the bottle I was able to drive her twenty or thirty miles without any apparent bad effects. She now goes sound; I also with the same bottle removed two wind galls from her hind legs.

Hoping that this will be of some benefit to you, I am, your truly,
MARTIN BURNELL, 401 California St.

ALAMEDA LEAVES

FOR COAST

WITH BIG CARGO

With a big passenger list, the steamer filled to overflowing, and a full cargo, the Alameda steamed out of the harbor this morning on her way to the Coast. There was the usual big crowd down to see the steamer off and to bid goodbye to departing friends.

Parcer Smith received many condolences for the trouble prospectively in store for him, and numerous anxious inquiries were made of the doctor as to whether or not he had laid in a large enough supply of paracetic. The entire after part of the vessel was swarming with children.

The Alameda took about all the freight she could carry with such a large list of passengers in the steerage. She had in all about 1900 tons of cargo, including 6000 sacks of refined sugar and 2500 sacks of raw. There were also 4500 bunches of bananas, together with a mixed assortment of other freight. The Alameda blew her departing whistle at 10:15.

SILVA DEPLORES BOOZE CAMPAIGN

Denies That Portuguese Broke Up Former Meeting

"I want here tonight to answer some of the insults made about the Portuguese on Punchbowl." The speaker was M. A. Silva, who thundered forth in his usual stormy manner at the Democratic meeting at Emma Square last night. "They say that some Portuguese disturbed a meeting held there. Who was to blame for that if it was not the party which gave free beer and whiskey to every man and child at the meeting? Was it done on purpose? Why did they throw open a saloon not fifty feet away and give everyone a general invitation to have all they wanted because it had been paid for? This was a double insult to the Portuguese. The first insult was in trying to buy their votes with booze, and every Portuguese voter ought to resent the insult. Do the Republicans think that they can buy a Portuguese with a glass of wine? That is the opinion the Republicans have of the Portuguese and it is insulting.

"Then they blamed the row on two or three boys who had nothing to do with it and even went around and tried to have these boys fired from their jobs. Is that a way to help the Republican ticket, by getting some boys fired?

"They go around, in Kakaako and Iwilei, for instance, with beer and whiskey as arguments. When a party gets so low that it has to do this it is time to bury it so deep that it will never rise again, and I believe that you realize with me that that time has come."

Fred. Terrell, another fire-eater, also made an ultra-strenuous speech, roasting the Republicans in general, and jumping more especially on Sam Johnson and the "road machine." Regarding Brown he said:

"I go out to Moiliili and I find a one-armed kanaka speaking for Brown. He tells the Hawaiians on the side that Brown won't arrest them unless they commit a serious crime. What does Brown want? Does a man have to murder here before the police will touch him? Laukae is a man, honest and square. He will carry out the law and he will have men like Silva and others to change the laws and make them right. The people on the hill have had sand thrown in their eyes long enough and they are going to do different. The lease on Punchbowl runs out in a few years, but have the Republicans said anything about how the Portuguese are going to get their land and homes there? Are these lots to be sold like those at Makiki, with an upset price covering all the improvements? Get next to yourselves and send men to the Legislature that will give the people a chance."

Charles Rose accused Sam Johnson of packing the Republican meeting. Fred. Weed amused himself with the liquor law. Trent jumped on the Republican beer campaign. Mrs. Puahi appealed to the voters, as the mother of a family, to down the party which ruined the young by giving them booze. H. J. Mossman welcomed the Civic Feds, who, he hoped, would help the Democrats to secure a fair count on election day. Moore reviewed all the work he had done as a Supervisor.

The Democrats also held a meeting at S. M. Damon's Moanua estate, at which Chas. Broad and Laukae made the principal speeches, both roasting the police machine.

KUHIO AND NOTLEY RETURN THIS WEEK

Both Due Next Saturday And McClanahan Tomorrow

At the end of this week the campaign will be enlivened by the presence of the three candidates for Delegate to Congress, Kuhio Kalaniana'ole, the Republican candidate, E. B. McClanahan, the choice of the Democrats, and Charles K. Notley, the Home Ruler. The presence of these three head candidates in person will do much towards enlivening the campaign.

Considerable uncertainty has been felt regarding the movements of Kuhio, who
